This Announcement is brought to you for free and open access by The Open Repository @ Binghamton (The ORB). It has been accepted for inclusion in The Society for Ancient Greek Philosophy Newsletter by an authorized administrator of The Open Repository @ Binghamton (The ORB). For more information, please contact ORB@binghamton.edu.

This is the email version of the Society for Ancient Greek Philosophy Newsletter 2002/3.2, dated December, 2002. It's going out to everyone on the SAGP email list. Members who are up-to-date on their dues can expect to receive the papers to be presented to the society at the Eastern Division meeting in the near future, if they haven't received them already – we mailed them out on Monday, December 2. Those who are not up-to-date on their dues may receive a paper version of this newsletter in the mail in the near future – we mailed them on Wednesday, December 4. But we are moving rapidly away from that and toward the email version of the newsletter.

Call for papers: SAGP AT AMERICAN PHILOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION

We have met the requirements of the American Philological Association for “charter renewal” and we intend to attempt to present a program at the January 2004 meeting. We will be required to have at least four abstracts/papers submitted (hopefully, we'll have significantly more than that!) by February 1, 2003, in order to submit a program for that meeting. You may submit your paper electronically at apreus@binghamton.edu. We have the same deadline (February 1, 2003) for submissions for the meeting of the Society with the Eastern Division of the American Philosophical Association in December 2003. The Program Committee has strongly indicated that it prefers papers that appear more or less complete, rather than abstracts.

SAGP with the Eastern Division of the American Philosophical Association 2002

You are invited to attend the meeting of the Society with Eastern Division of the American Philosophical Association, at the Philadelphia Marriott, Saturday, December 28, 7:30 p.m.-10:30 p.m. in Marriott Room 415.

Chair: John Mulhern, University of Pennsylvania

Suzanne Obdrzalek, UC Berkeley, “Carneades’ Pithanon and its Relation to Epoche and Apraxia”

Scott Rubarth, Rollins College, “Targeting Emotion in Early Stoicism”

Phil Corkum, UCLA, “Parts and Properties in Aristotle’s Categories”

SAGP DUES

Dues are $10 per year US; $15 Canadian (but we would prefer $10 US from our Canadian members). Members outside North America should contribute $15 US to (more or less) cover the cost of mailings. Make out your check to SAGP. We honor multi-year dues payments. If you need to pay by credit card, please contact apreus@binghamton.edu for a payment form (can be sent as an email attachment or faxed). Those who pay by check do not need a payment form—just mail the check and your preferred mailing address to SAGP, Philosophy, Binghamton University, Binghamton NY 13902-6000. If you have been getting newsletters, but are not a member, you should be advised that we will be cutting that list rather seriously during the course of this year. If you wish to continue hearing from us, you should either join, or at least get yourself included on the email list (see below).

SAGP Speaker Policy

The Society for Ancient Greek Philosophy sponsors sessions with the annual meetings of the Eastern, Central, and Pacific Divisions of the American Philosophical Association, and the annual meeting of the American Philological Association (restarting in January 2004). Occasionally the SAGP meets with various other groups. Those wishing to present a paper at any meeting of the SAGP are requested to contact A. Preus, Secretary SAGP, Philosophy, Binghamton U, 13902-6000; fax 607-777-2734; apreus@binghamton.edu. Submitters should include their name and address directly below the title of the paper on a separate title page, and nowhere else; that allows for anonymous review by the Program Committee. Submitters should also include a cover letter indicating the meeting(s) of the Society at which they would like (be willing) to present the paper. If you submit in paper copy, we would like to have 7 copies. You may also submit electronically. Deadlines for receipt are as follows:

February 1 for Eastern Division meeting following December or the American Philological Association meeting the following January.

September 1 for Pacific and Central subsequent Spring.

These deadlines reflect the necessity for a month turnaround to the Program Committee and a month to put the program together. Submitters should expect a response about six weeks after each of the deadline dates. The members of the Program Committee are: the President (Fred Miller) and Secretary (A. Preus), ex officio; John Anton, Elizabeth Asmis, Patricia Curd, Julius Moravcsik, and Thomas M. Robinson.

THE JOURNAL OF NEOPLATONIC STUDIES

The Journal of Neoplatonic Studies VIII.2 and IX.1 are in preparation. Subscriptions are still just $15 per year. Submissions of papers are invited: two copies (and a diskette please!) to John Finamore, Classics, University of Iowa, Iowa City, IA 52242; john-finamore@uiowa.edu.
